LESSONS THAT LAST™
Those Shoes

TEKS
2.8A

TEKS 2.8A: Determine theme using text evidence with teacher assistance.

Model Text: Those Shoes by Maribeth Boelts (Candlewick Press, MA, 2007)

Vocabulary from the Model Text: guidance counselor, heavy, thrift, out

EL Support: Teach the meaning of the following verbs in this book by asking students to identify examples from the text. For example, Jeremy grips a pencil while writing his spelling words, hitches up his bag, the bus stop in his too-tight shoes, shrugs after supper, and nudges Antonio. (Students may also find examples of these verbs in their own lives or in other books.) Compare and contrast the meanings of these verbs across different cultures. Discuss the meaning of perfect shape (okay to use or wear).

Whole Group Lesson Steps:

1. Start with basic understanding of characters, setting, and plot to lay (light green) to chart the main events in the story (Beginning: Jeremy gives him a pair of unpopular shoes when his wear out; he finds those thankful that he has new snow boots.

of a story may help us determine its theme. Reread each main story event; then a different colored sticky note (pink) above each event telling how the main character (Jeremy) felt and discuss how he changed across the story.

Esos Zapatos

TEKS
2.8A

TEKS 2.8A: Determinar el tema usando evidencia textual con la asistencia de un adulto

Model Text: Esos Zapatos por Maribeth Boelts (Candlewick Press, MA, 2007)

Vocabulary from the Model Text: consejero escolar, agarro, segunda m

Dual-Language Support: Take the opportunity to point out the way dialogue is written in the book. Now that students are in second grade, these are nuances they need to learn. In English, quotation marks (") to indicate when someone is speaking, but in Spanish, the tilde (~) is used. Point out any instance of dialogue throughout the story to help students see it in context. This will be helpful in the books so they can begin deciphering the nuances of each language when they read.

Whole Group Lesson Steps:

1. Start with basic understanding of personajes, escenario y trama pa notes in one color (light green) to chart the main events in the story character of a story may help us determine its theme. Reread each main story event; then a different colored sticky note (pink) above each event telling cómo se sintió el personaje principal (Jeremy) and discuss how he changed across the story.
